

Bowmen Of Warfield Booking Rules

To attend the club and shoot you must make a booking. No member may attend the club without a booking being in place.

By booking you acknowledge

1. All adults have read and will abide by the ArcheryGB Return to Archery guidance for Archers, v1.0 or as updated
2. All adults have read and will abide by the Bowmen of Warfield local club rules v1.1 or as updated
3. That all those attending (juniors for example) will abide by 1 & 2 as above.

Who Can Book

- Any member of Bowmen Of Warfield. This includes current associates.

Who Cannot Book

- We are not accepting any Guest shooting

Distances & Time

- Set distances have been laid out and as per conditions laid down, no moving of targets. The committee will review and adjust distances over time
- 1 hour 30 minutes per session. This will be reviewed over time
- You can book a maximum of Two sessions per member per week. This will be reviewed and adjusted as we understand the use of the field

How To Book

- A link to the master spreadsheet will be provided on an email which contains the start date, all associated documents and information.